Dr. Gerber in China—2003

For the fourth consecutive year, Dr. Gerber was invited to visit the People's Republic of China. He was the only foreign dentist invited to lecture at the 2003 National Educational Symposium of Prosthetics and Orthodontics sponsored by the Municipal Hospital of the Medical College of Qingdao University. The three-day conference was held in Qingdao City from September 27–30. Approximately 100 dentists from all over China attended the conference.

Dr. Gerber lectured on "High Technology in Dentistry." The topics included "The Sirona Cerec 3D CAD-CAM Computer"; "The Use of the Vident EasyShade Spectrometer"; and "A Tour of a 21st Century Digital Office."

Qingdao City, with a population of approximately seven million people, is located in Shandong Province and is the fourth-largest port in China. It was selected to be one of the three cities in China to host the 2008 Summer Olympic Games.
